Re: Notification of Receipt of Administrative Complaint

Dear Secretary Vinyard:

This is to notify you that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Office of Civil Rights (OCR) received a complaint on July 21, 2011, alleging that the City of Brooksville, Florida, Hernando County, the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, and the Florida Department of Health have violated Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (Title VI), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000d et seq., and EPA's nondiscrimination regulations found at 40 C.F.R. Part 7. (A copy of the redacted complaint is enclosed.)

OCR is responsible for processing and investigating complaints alleging discrimination by programs or activities that receive financial assistance from EPA. Pursuant to EPA's nondiscrimination regulations, OCR will review the complaint for acceptance, rejection, or referral to another Federal agency. 40 C.F.R. §7.120(d)(1). Once this jurisdictional review is complete, OCR will notify you about its decision.

EPA's nondiscrimination regulations also provide that OCR must attempt to resolve complaints informally whenever possible (40 C.F.R. §7.120(d)(2)). Accordingly, if the complaint is accepted for investigation, OCR may discuss offers to informally resolve the complaint, and may, to the extent appropriate, facilitate an informal resolution process with the involvement of affected stakeholders.

In the interim, if you have any questions about the status of this complaint, please contact me at (202) 564-0792, via e-mail at wooden-aguilar.helena@epa.gov, or via mail

OCR is responsible for processing and investigating complaints alleging discrimination by programs or activities that receive financial assistance from EPA. Pursuant to EPA's nondiscrimination regulations, OCR will review the complaint for acceptance, rejection, or referral to another Federal agency. 40 C.F.R. §7.120(d)(1). Once this jurisdictional review is complete, OCR will notify you about its decision.

If your complaint is accepted for investigation, it may become necessary for OCR to reveal your identity to persons at the City of Brooksville, Florida, Hernando County, the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, and the Florida Department of Health. Please read the enclosed consent/release form, as well as the information about your rights and protections. Please complete the consent/release form and return the form to the address below within ten (10) calendar days after your receipt of this letter.

EPA's nondiscrimination regulations also provide that OCR must attempt to resolve complaints informally whenever possible (40 C.F.R. §7.120(d)(2)). Accordingly, if your complaint is accepted for investigation, OCR may discuss offers to informally resolve the complaint, and may, to the extent appropriate, facilitate an informal resolution process with the involvement of affected stakeholders.
